

Olutomi Oyetunde
5, Anne Street London, E13 8BX
E : olutomioyetunde@yahoo.com, Tel : 02036896717, M : 07577037392

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

An empathetic, hard working and compassionate health care assistant, who is a great team player, works well under pressure and possess an excellent communication skill. Who is well experienced in providing mental health care, long term illness care and elderly care under the supervision of registered nurses in nursing homes. Currently undergoing phlebotomy training.

PERSONAL

Able to work under unpredictable circumstances.

Able to work successfully with service users from difficult background.

Able to learn fast and willingness to undergo further training.

Able to work fast and maintain good time management.

CAREER HISTORY

Alcohol Recovery Center (ARC)	East London (NHS)
Volunteering	26th April, 2014 - Present

- Greet patient as they arrive and check them in.
- Direct patient to the right member of staff or facilities.
- Talk generally to service users to make them feel calm and supported.
- Help service users to fill out forms for their assessment.
- Assist with activity groups such as reading group.

Delta Nursing Agency	London
HEALTH CARE ASSISTANT	May 2014 - Present

- Taking and recording the service users Temperature, pulse and respiration.
- Maintaining the comfort and dignity of service users at all times.
- Providing emotional support to service users and relatives.
- Helping and assisting service users with their daily needs such as, washing, toileting, dressing and undressing, feeding and so on.
- Provide support and assistant to registered nurses.
- Working under the direct supervision of a registered nurse

- Moving & Handling
- Infection Control
- Vital signs monitoring
- Documentation
- Toileting
- Personal Hygiene
- Handling patients possession

B.Sc (2.2)

May 2000

Complaints Handling
Communication skill
Developing employability skills
FireSafety
Medication Awareness
Dementia Care
Care of Tracheostomy

Enviromental Biology